Oziris ironman guide v4

Oldschool Runescapelonman guideBy OzirisRSRe-formatting + images + details added krxuor Content of previous text This version is basically copied from the old one, with improved quest order and new methods, about case if you're wondering why it looks exactly the same at first glance. Introduction Please read this first bit before starting with the actual guide. If there's an error in this tutorial somewhere, then feel free to tweet me @ozirislol but don't tell me to update this once there's some new update, it will take a very long time to do. Also, I rarely answer questions that can be easily answered with Ctrl + F in this tutorial or googling. There is no single right way to play this game, all in this tutorial is just what I would recommend. If you don't want to follow the step-by-step guide, then feel free to do your thing. It may still be worth reading this to pick up some ideas about what goals you might go for. Thanks for reading and enjoying the guide! Good luck and have fun. Starting from the beginning as a female character, be sure to make yourself an ironman before leaving the tutorial island. Female char for recruitment driveGo to This guide suggests that you always wear your money stack if I don't say not to bring it. I'll be reminded to bring a GP regardless of most of the time, but if I don't then keep it on you anyway. Use each book and lamp on Herblore if possible. Use authenticator and 2-step verification on registered email 1.1 Early quests, Winter and Ardy Trench Coat 1 Lumbridge Duke Horacio Location Father Aereck Location Talk to The Duke of Horacio and Father Aereck to begin quests rune mysteries and untreated ghost Pick up every item spawning in the castle, including those in the cellar, don't forget cabbage. Use violers to un-note the bar Take the boat to the Great KourendMake your way to WintertodtFletch all the 1k bronze arrows while walkingIf you see wolves near wintertodt, you went the wrong way. You shouldn't hit anything on the road. Now have to have 15 fletching and hopefully 15+ construction as well, it will increase the XP you get in those skills from wintertodt. Make Wintertodt up to 60 loggers, should get this at 89 fire extinguishing, if you're not fletchY really shouldn't be in any danger of dying with 10hp, but pay attention anyway, it's a long walk back if you die.10HP accounts start taking 1 damage on 56FM even without warm clothes, but if you've dug up key hunter boots and gloves before, you might as well use them. Keep opening the drawers until you have a 200k GP in the jar, after that just keep them as long for the best rewards. Ideally you should keep the drawers until you have a bank space, but if you don't get 12 mage magazines from the original boxes then you'll open them in front of Desert Treasure.Fletching magazines, in my opinion, not worth it, but if you want to then go ahead. Personally, I just fletch one when running from root to manse. If you like, feel free to get 99 firefrighting at a time. Make sure to still keep the boxes in the jar after 200k GP for the best inv loot.
